

GRUPPO MOSSI & GHISOLFI

SECOND GENERATION ETHANOL – A REALISTIC CHALLENGE

Tortona, AL – ITALY – 5th February 2008

Centro Mater Dei - Via Sparpaglione Don Domenico, 15

9.30 Registration and welcome coffee

10.00 Greetings:

Mercedes Bresso - President of The Piemonte Region

Paolo Filippi - President of the Province of Alessandria

Francesco Marguati - Mayor of Tortona

Giancarlo Cerutti - President Il Sole 24 ORE

MORNING SESSION : Strategy for Cellulosic Ethanol

Chair of the session:

Luigi Nicolais – Italian Minister for Innovation and Technologies

10.30 Cellulosic Ethanol: Road map for the industry
Guido Ghisolfi – Vice President Gruppo M&G

10.55 Future energy demand and opportunities for bioethanol. How to sustain the development of second generation Bioethanol
Corrado Clini – Chair GBEP Global Bioenergy Partnership

11.20 Enabling technologies. State of the art
John Ranieri - Vice President and General Manager DuPont Bio-Based Materials

11.45 Research and Development Challenges of Bioethanol from Cellulosic Biomass
Daniel I.C. Wang – Professor Department of Chemical Engineering MIT- Massachusetts Institute of Technology

12.10 The out look from an environmental point of view
Edoardo Zanchini – National manager of urban areas and transport Legambiente

12.35 Final remarks by the Minister Luigi Nicolais

In cooperation with

GRUPPO MOSSI & GHISOLFI

13.00 Buffet Lunch

AFTERNOON SESSION : Research and technology development to enable second generation ethanol.

Chair of the session:

Andrea Bairati - Research, University and Innovation Councillor for The Piemonte Region

- 14.30 Research Cooperation between University and Industry to fuel innovation and enable industry growth
Guido Saracco – Department Director of Materials Science and Engineering Chemistry, Politecnico di Torino
- 14.45 Learning from photosynthesis how to make biofuels
James Barber – Professor of Biochemistry, Imperial College of London
- 15.00 Energy crops
Giuseppe Manara – Vice President and Southern Operations Manager Pioneer
- 15.15 Technology, a key to the success
Guido Zacchi – Professore of Chemical Engineering, University of Lund
- 15.30 Second generation ethanol. How to reach the goal. The PRO.E.SA project
Dario Giordano – Global Director Corporate Research & Development M&G Group
- 15.45 Question and answer session
- 16.00 Closing remarks by the Councillor Andrea Bairati

In cooperation with

